

Green Affordable Housing Underwriting: Increasing Cash Flow

Federal Reserve Bank

600 Atlantic Avenue, Boston
June 23, 2010

8:00 Registration & Continental Breakfast

9:00 Welcome

Hon. Henri A. Termeer, Chairman, Federal Reserve Bank of Boston

9:15 Introduction

Hon. Jan A. Miller, Chair, Federal Home Loan Bank, Boston

9:30 Panel: Green Affordable Housing Case Study including Sustainable Integrative Design & Development (SIDD)

Edward F. Connelly, President, LEED AP, New Ecology & Bill Reed, LEED, Integrative Design Collaborative

- Summary Case Study of Financing Green Affordable Housing
- SIDD saves construction & operating costs & reduces risk - Fireman's Fund Risk Reduction Statement

9:45 New Developments for Financing Green Affordable Housing Including Tax Credits

Moderator: Madeline Fraser-Cook, LISC. Panel: Bill Fenton, Bank of America, Kirk Sykes, Urban Strategy America Fund, Rebecca Regan, Boston Community Capital

11:00 Added Value of Green Housing & Status of Cheaper Cost of Capital, Green Building Securities, Green Private Equity

Phil Giudice, Commissioner, Massachusetts Department of Energy Resources, Chairman, National Association of State Energy Officials, Mike Italiano, CEO, Capital Markets Partnership

Capital Markets Briefing Paper: Business Case for Commercializing Sustainable Investment:

- reduced risk
- higher value collateral
- commercial market top of market rents & occupancy
- national statistically valid data
- rising conventional energy costs
- strong investor preference
- affordable housing benefits the most & why

sponsored by

11:15 Overview of National Consensus Green Building Underwriting Standard 2.0

- Green Value Score Background & Calculation Showing Increased Cash Flow & Value
- Underwriting Case Study Scoring Actual Properties

12:00

Keynote Luncheon Speaker

Hon. Thomas M. Menino, Mayor of Boston

Green Financing as an Economic Stimulus

Acting Now for a Safe and Prosperous Tomorrow

